

Mandala School Newsletter

Volume XI

Issue XV

11 January 2019

My Trip to El Buen Amigo!
By Claudia M!

On Monday I went to El Buen Amigo. A lot of you went too! El Buen Amigo translated to English means "good friends." I had lot's of fun. A BIG thank you to Santiago!

The students built "character towers," learned how to salsa dance, had an authentic South American lunch, and made jewelry. It was a wonderful cultural experience.

Student of the Week: Kyle

What is your name? Kyle

How old are you? 5

Are you a rookie or a vet at Mandala? Rookie

Who is in your family? Jackson, Mommy, daddy, Ben, and me.

Do you have any pets? Ally and Sam

Who is your role model? Iron Man

If you had one wish what would it be? To be Iron Man

If you could have any job what would it be? An inventor

If you could have any super power what would it be? To blast power rays

What is your favorite...

Food: cheeseburger

movie: Iron Man 2

Book: Henry and the Yeti

country: Canada

Toy: my Iron Man toy

activity: ring toss

Video game: Sonic the Hedgehog 2

hobby: collecting Dino cards class: recess

animal: gorilla

dinosaur: T-rex

Interview by Damon & Jackson M.

Book Report #2

Due Tuesday, February 12th

Parents, please assist your child with daily reading and completing a book report.

Please choose a different option than book report #1.

On Thursday we rolled our own sushi. Students chopped, rolled, and tasted their own homemade sushi! It was great!

