

Mandala School Newsletter

January 5, 2018

This week's editor:
Keltrian

Student of the week:
Liam

Where do you live? Buffalo. I don't really know where I live.
What do you want to be when you grow up? A firefighter
What is your greatest fantasy? I'm not so sure about that.
How would you describe yourself? Smart
If you could go anywhere, where would it be? Florida
What do you like to do in your spare time? Go outside in the yard.
What is your favorite video game? I don't play video games, but my dad does.
What is your favorite movie? Veggie Tales
What is your favorite sport? Football
What is your favorite team? The Bills
What is your favorite weather? Winter
What is your favorite subject? French

Left: Kate, Claudia, & Jackson in French class. They are learning verbs "to be" and "to go." Être and aller

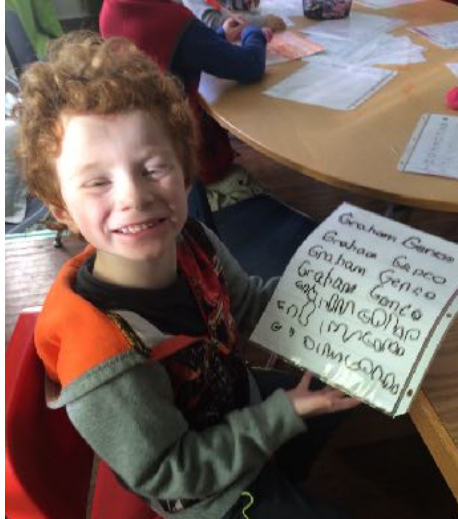

Students working on their ancient civilization research project. They are studying different aspects of life between 2000 and 1000 B.C.

Playing board games on a cold day

Above: Students gathered around the fireplace reading short stories by Ray Bradbury. We started a science fiction unit reading The Pedestrian and All Summer in a Day. Students are beginning to write stories of their own.

Left: Graham, Charlotte, Claudia are making great strides learning how to read, write, and share with their classmates! They're so happy, we are too! Très bien!

Mandala International

A benefit for The Mandala School's international trip to experience

French culture and language

mercredi 24 janvier 2018
6:00 - 8:30 P.M.
Dard Hunter Hall
Roycroft Campus
21 S Grove St. East Aurora

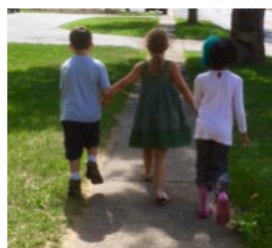

Please join the teachers and students from The Mandala School for a relaxing and enlightening fundraiser. Sip wine and sample cheeses as you indulge in French culture, history, and language for an evening. Special Guest speakers include Pascal Soares of the Consul of France in New York, and award winning author, Mason Winfield.

A group of 14 Mandala students and teachers will be traveling to France in April to practice the language, experience the culture, and visit historical museums and monuments. Please help us fundraise for this opportunity by joining us for an exciting cultural evening on Wednesday, January 24, 2018. For more information, visit our Facebook page, or e-mail us:

mandalaschool@mac.com

6:00 Wine & Socializing
6:45 Remarks, Pascal Soares, Consul of France
7:15 Native American Ghosts on the Niagara - Author Mason Winfield
7:45 Appetizers
8:15 The Gallic Ghosts of Western New York

$30 per ticket
Tickets available online at mandalaschool.org at the school: 738 Main Street, East Aurora