

Mandala School
Newsletter
Volume XVIII Issue V
October 17, 2025

Happy birthday
Kyle

Top: girls in writing class working on Camp Allegany stories
Above: Petey's drawing of the creek

Left: Bryce's presentation on the Mississippi River

Above: Petey learned to count by thousands!

Right: Kyle practicing on the keyboard

This week we started an author study about Eric Carle. And I looked at Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? That was my favorite book and The Very Hungry Caterpillar. By Zosia recycling ♻️ vs. trash 🗑️ vs. compost 🌱 Please remember we have a carry-in carry-out policy! Trash-free lunches and snacks is the goal! REDUCE your waste!

we made the whole alphabet today but we used apples instead of paint brushes!

Art
By Bryce

In art this week we have been working on a choice project. I am working on a letter sentence that I designed myself. Owen is working on a splatter art piece. Jasper designed his own characters and made them into scenes! I love art, Its so fun!

Camp Allegany
by Sophie

*In the kitchen I make some dinner For all the happy campers Pleading with hunger
They need some food, oh they need some food
All the happy campers need some food
The time has come to feed them*

We all sit at the crackling fire red as blood and as blue as the sea

*I teach bracelet making oh no one comes to do it Oh I teach bracelet making and everyone comes to play
So I don't teach bracelet making I end up going to play*

We had an amazing time in Allegany last week. Thank you to all of you who joined us and made it a joyful experience!

rain splatting onto the metal roof water drizzling down to rough gravel pooling with water a jumping puddle is born this puddle quickly fills with rubber boots splish splash splish splash joyful smiles light up their faces umbrellas shielding them from the rain

by Stella

Allegany
By: Petey

The first hour I went creek walking with Weston, Weston's dad, Gabriel's mom, Gabriel, Lochley, and Alice. On the creek walk we hiked up a hill and down a hill. Then we got back to camp and ate lunch.

We went to the playground. My favorite part was the zipline. When we went back we had spaghetti for dinner. Then I went to the campfire and ate s'mores.

